Congrats and thank you to Susan Good, who just celebrated 25 years with the University this month! She started in 1987 with NITA as a staff accountant. At that time, NITA was located in on the second floor of now Biolchini Hall and Jim Seckinger was the director.

New faces at NDLS

You may remember that in our series of welcomes to new faculty hires during last semester's NDLS Update issues, we mentioned that Roger Alford would be beginning at the law school in January 2012. Please join us in welcoming him as he settles in! Roger comes to us from Pepperdine and teaches and writes in a wide range of subject-matter areas, including international trade, international arbitration, and comparative law. His new office is 3118 in Eck Hall.

Please also join us in welcoming two additional faculty members this year: Veronica Root becomes a Visiting Assistant Professor beginning July 1st, and Kristine Kalanges will be joining our faculty as an associate professor. Veronica graduated cum laude from Georgetown University's McDonough School of Business with a B.S. in Business Administration, and received her J.D. from the University of Chicago. She comes to us from the Washington, D.C. office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, where she currently practices in the firm's Litigation Department. Prior to this, she clerked for the Honorable Carl E. Stewart of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Kristine graduated with a B.A. in International Political Economy from the University of Puget Sound, a M.A./Ph.D. from Georgetown University in Government (International Relations), and a J.D. from Yale Law School. She joins us from American University, where she has taught since 2009. Previously, she practiced law in the New York office of Cleary, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton and also served as a law clerk for the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C.
